I Dream of A New America is a very relevant book for these challenging times. At this critical time in our history when a hunger for political change is struggling to be born; when the confrontation between the old politics of conflict and compromise and the new politics of hope and possibility is being played out on the national stage, author George Cappannelli, well-known corporate and political consultant and author of Say Yes To Change and Authenticity, adds his distinctly provocative and insightful voice to this crucial political debate. In I Dream of A New America, Keys To Reclaiming The Heart & Soul of America, Cappannelli brings unique and powerful perspectives, solid recommendations, practical experience and a refreshing honesty about the hard subjects that only someone who has been in a some of the world's leading boardrooms and political war rooms can offer.

Are we really committed to change, he asks? Are we disturbed enough by the dysfunction and disharmony present in Washington; disheartened and disappointed by the lack of effective and intelligent action being taken by leaders on both sides of the aisle and, of particular concern, by the absence of competence and consciousness they demonstrate? Are we ready for a new brand of political leaders with character and the willing and ability to identify and execute real solutions to our major problems? Are we also ready to accept our responsibility as citizens and do all that is necessary to reclaim our sovereignty and renew the promises articulated in our Declaration of Independence, the U.S. Constitution and The Bill of Rights? Do we believe it is still even possible?

These are some of the questions Cappannelli explores! He believes we are at a tipping point and must move beyond settling for the same old tired solutions and the same cast of recycled and ineffective political operatives; we must work to end this rapid and precipitous decline toward the end of our forefathers' noble dream and once again set this ship of state on a heading toward a proud and positive future. He believes it is time to take a number of critical steps:

- Reclaim our sovereignty and self-governance
- Revisit our systems of checks and balances
- Redefine the role of the President and Vice President.
- Recast the role of the media, and the way we select our candidates
- Reconsider general strikes and tax revolts as effective democratic tools
- Revitalize our core values and reclaim the moral high ground

Cappannelli offers very specific and practical recommendations – some are moderate and easier to implement and others more radical and require greater courage and dialogue – but one thing is very clear, he doesn't hold back his punches. He believes we are at the tipping point and that it is time we begin the next stage of the American Revolution.

Praise For The Author's Past Work

"In these turbulent times we are all faced with dramatic changes. Our ability to accept change, to deal with it consciously and with the kind of optimism, insight and confidence discussed in Say Yes To Change may well be one of the most important abilities we can develop."

Gerald Jampolski - Author of Love Is Letting Go Of Fear

"Authenticity is a very important subject desperately needed in these challenging times and spoken in voice that has been there and knows the ground. Cappannelli is the real deal!"

Melina Bellows, Contributing Writer - Cosmopolitan & The Washingtonian

"In boardrooms and coffee rooms people are aware that the pace of technology and the challenges of a global economic marketplace make incredible demands on us all. So no matter what your role or level of responsibility, the ideas and suggestions presented in Say Yes To Change can make a real difference in your life."

Cody Plott, President, - Pebble Beach Resort

"Authenticity is a terrific book for our times. Keen insights, spiritual wisdom and practical advice challenge and invite you to live a richer, deeper life of meaning and inner integrity. I strongly recommend it to people of faith everywhere."

The Very Reverend Edward H. Harrison - Dean, St. John's Episcopal Cathedral

"In a world as technologically advanced as ours, it is easy to get overwhelmed by change. Yet change, as we are reminded in Say Yes To Change, is not only inevitable but valuable. The unique insights and practical tools shared with us can help us – as executive teams and as individuals to live more expansive, empowered and successful lives."

Brewster Shaw, US Astronaut & Boeing's Director of The Manned Flight & Space Exploration
